

Dear IABE Participant,

Greetings! We appreciate your patience regarding the update on the IABE-2010 Bangkok because of situation in Bangkok.

Our organizing team in Bangkok is headed by Dean Phapruek Ussahawanitchakit, Conference Chair and Dr. Gamon Savatsomboon, Program Chair. The IABE-2010 Bangkok will proceed as planned except that the venue is changed. The new information about the IABE-2010 Summer Conference is as below:

IABE-2010 Bangkok Summer Conference, June 4- 6, 2010

New Venue: Dusit Thani Pattaya (a five-star ocean front hotel) in Pattaya, Thailand.

http://www.dusit.com/hotels/thailand/pattaya/dusit_thani/index.html

The room rate is 3,300 Bahts per night.

Ms. Amonrat is the contact person of Dusit Thani Pattaya. You could contact her via email at "amonrat.as@dusit.com".

{Here are the reasons: 1. Safety. 2. Pattaya is easy to get to from Bangkok. It is a major tourist beach city. We anticipate that our domestic and international guests (participants) would very much enjoy The City of Pattaya (rather than Bangkok). Pattaya was not affected by the political protest. It takes less than 2 hours drive from Suwannaphum International Airport to Pattaya (Choburi Province).}

The Imperial Queen's Park Hotel would not charge for cancellations because they understand our situation. You must contact the Imperial for cancellation of your reservation, if any.

We look forward to welcome you at the IABE-2010 Summer Conference at the Dusit Thani Pattaya, Thailand.

If you need more information please contact:

Dr. Gamon Savatsomboon, Program Chair at gamon.s@acc.msu.ac.th.
